‘WHO GOES THERE’ PREMIERE REVEAL FUNDRAISER

As promised, the spirits were summoned and our paranormal enthusiasts’ interest was piqued! Three raffle winners from our May event accompanied Rob Goff, Sr., Director and Founder of Agawam Paranormal and his team to three NEW investigator locations and we are ready to present their findings to you at our ‘Who Goes There’ Premiere Reveal Fundraiser on October 16, 2026 at the Wilbraham Senior Center. The winning investigative locations include Adams Cemetery, the Block Building and Taproom Bar and Grill all right here in Wilbraham! We anticipate our three raffle winners and their guests will join Rob and his team to expound on their encounters from the investigations. You don’t want to miss hearing them regale their escapades!

But…our crystal ball says, there’s more! To make this Premiere Reveal even more interesting, we are offering two ticket tiers….

VIP Meet, Greet and Seat Admission ($15 pp) which includes:

- early admission (entry 5:15 pm) (limited seating (35 max)…call ahead)
- a 45 minute private group session with Rob and his team to avail yourself of their paranormal experiences; ask questions and relay your encounters
- hands on experience with the team’s paranormal equipment
- complimentary ticket for eligibility to win a promotional Swag Bag give-away
- a raffle where you and a guest may win an opportunity to attend one final investigation with Agawam Paranormal at the Old Meeting House, Main Street, Wilbraham
- appetizers and beverages
- reserved seating to the Premiere Reveal immediately following this meet and greet

* General Admission ($5 pp) which includes: (limited seating…first come, first served)

- an opportunity to view, for the very first time, our May raffle winner’ investigations (entry 6 pm)
- complimentary ticket for eligibility to win a promotional Swag Bag give-away
- a raffle where you and a guest may win an opportunity to attend one final investigation with Agawam Paranormal at the Old Meeting House, Main Street., Wilbraham

Local historian, Dave Bourcier, will be joining us with his recent publication Wilbraham: A Journey Through History, available for purchase (cash or checks) along with book signing and giving background information about the evening’s investigation sites.

To give our event an authentic feel, we’re hoping our attendees will consider wearing costumes since it’s so close to Halloween. Spread the word to your family and friends. We’re expecting a BIG turnout and we look forward to seeing you there! (We suggest carpooling if possible.)

*There are a limited number of seats for General Admission at this event. If you haven’t returned your form/ payment by October 1st, contact Kathy S. (not the Senior Center) @ 413-596-5462 to confirm availability.

All forms/payment must be returned prior to the event; no admittance at the door that evening.
